

At each encoder stage, two task-specific learnable prompt sets (for SOD and SED) are shared across all windows and concatenated with window tokens.

